PACKING HOUSE FIRE.
CRUSHED IN THE WRECK.

ONE MAN KILLED OUTRIGHT AND SEVEN MEN HURT.

Two of the Injured May Die—Spon taneous Combustion. Amid meat.
The Watchman Tried to Put Out the Blaze Without Assistance and Loses His Life.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
KANSAS CITY, Aug. 7.—One man was killed outright, two perhaps fatally injured and five others sustained more or less serious injuries in a fire which started in Swift's packing plant at mid night, and burned till late this morn ing. The property loss was nearly $100,000. The dead:
JOSEPH HOBLOWITZ, night watch man, suffocated or burned to death.

The injured:
HARVEY BIDLEMAN, a houseman, fell from the roof of the building and will probably die.
STEPHEN REYNOLDS, watchman; face and hands terribly burned; may die.

HARRY CRESBY, watchman; over come by smoke and scorched.
A. D. FORSINGER, head watchman; head out, hand burned.

A. T. BARCLAY, watchman; burned and hurt by explosion.

JOHN JOSS, watchman; burned and hurt by explosion.

JOSEPH Dwyer, fireman; leg badly wounded.

The fire started in the meat house, apparently from spontaneous combustion.
The watchman tried to put it out with out calling on the fire department. A terrible explosion occurred, throwing the men in the yard and the building was buried under a mass of meat, and either suffocated or burned to death.

The other men managed to crawl to the open air. The explosion was caused by the meat and lard becoming over heated.

HULL'S DEFENSE.
The Alleged Poisoner Charges His Wife with Being Insane.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 7.—When Rev. J. C. Hull, the preacher arrested at the request of his wife, charged with attempting to poison her by adminis tering poison in repeated small doses, appeared in the Police Court, he had no attorney, and neither side was pre pared to proceed, so the case was con tinued for ten days. In the meantime he is held without bail. Hull became prominent locally a year ago, when he made serious charges of persecution against certain members of his con gregation, being all the time pastor of the Clinton-avenue Methodist Church.

The only defense that Hull has made against the accusations is that he was brought against him, is the claim that his wife is, and has for some years, been insane, that during her insane period he had been endeavoring to secretly poison, and other dangerous things. He said that he had thus se creted a vial of poison, which was found on his person at the time of arrest.

The family physician denies the charge of insanity against the wife, while others insist that insanity is the reason for the actions the man has long time past. The matter has caused a great sensation in this section.

A FACTORY BURNED.
Nine Men Dead and Ten Injured.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE) CHRISTIANA (Norway), Aug. 7.—(By Atlantic Cable.) A disastrous fire oc curred in a golding factory here yester day, and before it was extinguished several buildings were destroyed. A falling wall killed six men and thirteen others were seriously hurt, of whom three have since died. It is believed that three children have also perished in the ruins.

Round-the-world Missionary.
PARIS (Ill.), Aug. 7.—Miss Clara
Parish, the seventh and youngest W.
C. T. U. round-the-world missionary, has left for St. Louis starting on her trip around the world. She will be given a big reception there. She will lecture at several points in the West, and will sail from San Francisco for Japan, August 25. The length of her stay is indefinite, possibly two years.
She is accompanied by Miss Jennie Smith of this city.

Utah's Second Hanging.
SALT LAKE, Aug. 7.—Charles Thiede was hanged today in the yard of the County Jail. The execution was wit nessed by a large number of people.
It was the second hanging in the history of Utah. Thiede, who was a saloon keeper, was convicted of murdering his wife on the night of April 20, 1894, nearly severing her head from the body with a knife. He asserted his innocence to the last.

STARVING REFUGEES.
A Pitiable Condition of Affairs Pre vails at Canes.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—A special to the Herald from Canes, Crete, says Muslim refugees have entered Can dia in large numbers. It was found impossible to keep them outside the gates, as they were starving. This has caused a certain anxiety among the Christians who are leaving in consid erable numbers, all possible facilities for doing so being granted them. Many of them are going by a special boat bound for the Pireaus. The British warship Hood has gone to Canes. Her pres ence there will restore confidence. The French ship Linoise has also gone to Canes.

Hassan Pasha, the Governor of Can dia, has called a committee to pro vide for the feeding and housing of the refugees, who are in a most miserable condition.

A battalion of troops has just ar rived at Canes. Abdullah Pasha, who is at the head of the Turkish military in the island, said: "I have not the least fear about keeping order. My sol diers are ready for all events."

NOT IN DOUBT

McKinley Will Carry

New York State.

Ex-Secretary Whitney is Positive in His Belief.

He Fixes the Majority at Two Hundred Thousand.

Mark Hanna Laboring in the Vine yard at Philadelphia—Leading Democrats to Vote the Repub lican Ticket.

(BY THE TIMES SPECIAL WIRE)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—(Special Dispatch.) The Evening Telegraph publishes an interview with ex-Secre tary Whitney, in which he expresses the belief that McKinley will carry New York State by 200,000 majority.

"Is it true," he was asked, "that you class New York State as doubtful?"

"True? There is not a word of truth in it. Not only is it false, but it is absolutely false."

"Then you don't give up the State?"

"What! Give up the State of New York on an issue which means reputa tion? Never! There is nothing ab solutely nothing to justify hopes and in yielding an inch of their ground.
On the contrary, you may express it as my firm conviction that Mr. McKin ley will carry this State by fully 200,000 majority, and in that majority you will find men of all classes who put patriotism over partisanship in an is sue of this kind. I have no hesita tion in expressing this belief. It comes from what I have seen, what I have heard, what I have investigated, what I know."

QUAY ABOUT TO RETIRE.
PITTSBURGH (Pa.), Aug. 7.—Before leaving for the South last night, Sen ator Quay stated to a reporter that his present term would be his last in the Senate. He said: "It has often been said by others, but I have never said it myself until now. At the expiration of my term in the United States Senate I will refuse any nomination and will retire from politics."

FORAKER'S EUROPEAN TRIP.
CINCINNATI, Aug. 7.—In regard to his trip to Europe about which much has been said, Senator-elect Foraker said today: "I am going to Europe I leave on the 18th of this month and will bring my daughter home. That's all there is to it. It is a trip to Europe such as I have made three or four times before. I will be back in time for the campaign. I will participate in the opening at Columbus before leaving.
The trip will be a very pleasant one.
I will be back on September 12, and will again go into the campaign just as before."

H. CLAY EVANS'S REFUSAL.
CHATTANOOGA (Tenn.), Aug. 7.— H. Clay Evans positively declines to be a candidate for the Republican nom ination for Governor at the convention at Nashville. This he does in a tele gram to Max O. Fisher, Evans is out of the city, but his son, H. C.
Evans, Jr., corroborates the dispatch.

JONES'S HINTS ON HILL.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Chairman Jones was back at Democratic head quarters today. He said concerning his visit to Senator Hill, that there was no authority for the statement that Hill had declared himself on the political situation. On the contrary, Jones says Hill is a man who is not easily influ enced, and like other New Yorkers is probably awaiting the action of the State convention in September. When asked what he thought of Hill, Jones said that he had stated from time to time that he had no doubt that Hill would be all right, but that he was no reason for giving any significance to this opinion in connection with the meeting in New York.

GREETINGS FROM SANTA CLARA.
SAN JOSE, Aug. 7.—The following telegram was sent today:
SAN JOSE, Aug. 7.
To Hon. William McKinley, Canton, O.—The Santa Clara Republican League sends greetings and assurances of a rising majority for McKinley, protection and sound money.
(Signed) F. MCRAW, President.
A. G. BENNETT, JR., Secretary.

GROVER SQUELCHES A RUMOR.
NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—In answer to an inquiry as to the report published in this city yesterday that President Cleveland had made known his disap proval of the proposed third-ticket project, the President telegraphs the following to the Evening Post: BUZZARD'S BAY (Mass.), Aug. 6.—It is absolutely untrue that I have given any advice to the Indianapolis confer ence.
(Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND.

DOING GOOD WORK.
Mark Hanna Uniting the Friends of the Cause.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—Mark Hanna came to this city yesterday and has had an important conference with a number of leading business and pro fessional men of both parties. Among those present at the conference were Provoost of Pennsylvania, John Wan maker, Rudolph Blackenberg, Mayor C. E. Warwick, ex-Mayor Edwin S.
Stuart, Charles Emory Smith, United States Senator William J. Sewell and a number of others, including William M. Singler, Thomas P. Shinnott and Frank Thompson, heretofore Repub lican. Thompson, who is first vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, made the first pub lic announcement of his intention to vote for McKinley and work for the success of the Republican ticket.

During the general discussion of the franchise of the campaign Hanna said:
"Every campaign contributor, without a single exception, will have access to the books of the National Committee."

BILLY BOY BRYAN'S PROTECHNICAL CAREER.

THIRD TICKET

The National Democratic

Party Organized.

A Wedge that Will Rip Billy Boy Up the Back.

Gold-standard Men Will Convene at Indianapolis.

Telegram from President Cleveland Received with Cheers—Candi dates Who May Be Run for a Nomination.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), Aug. 7.—
The nation of the new party is the Na tional Democratic party. Its organiza tion call those supporting the Chicago plat form and ticket the Populist-Dem ocratic party. The national conven tion of the National Democratic party will be held at Indianapolis in the first week in September. There was unanim ity in the conference on the selection of the name of the National Democratic party, and also in determining to distin guish the two parties by referring to those supporting the Chicago platform as the Populist-Democratic party.

Some of the Eastern and Southern members opposed a third ticket at first, but when they were told that in the Middle States party feeling was such that many Democrats would not vote unless there was a third ticket, then all objections from the East and South were withdrawn and the de cision to hold a convention was unani mous. It was regarded that, as the campaign proceeded and the Republi cans began to say harsh things of the Democratic party, the latter would vote for Bryan and Sewall, distaste ful as the Chicago platform was to them.

As the Eastern and Southern gold standard men said they were for any thing to defeat the Chicago ticket and platform, they readily consented to the plan that had been outlined by the Executive Committee, consisting of Bragg of Wisconsin, Bynum of In diana, Haldeman of Kentucky, Broad head of Missouri, and Robbins of Illi nois. Henry S. Robbins of Chicago was the only absent member of the Executive Committee, but Ewing took his place and Senator Palmer, ex Mayor Hopkins and others were ac tive in having the plan for a third ticket carried out.

Charles Tracy of Albany, George Fos ter Peabody of Brooklyn, John E.
Essem, of Baltimore, and other East ern men did not share in the opinion for a third ticket. Charles Tracy op posed for a third ticket came from Rhode Island and Texas, the smallest and the largest. They were given the fullest consideration because of the de sire for unanimous action, which was finally secured.

A telegram was received from Presi dent Cleveland, which was regarded by all as indicating his sympathy with the movement. Every mention of the President's name was loudly cheered. His portrait was the center of interest in the assembly-room. Ex-Congressman Outh waite, who made the motion for a con vention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President, holds a prominent appointment under President Cleveland. Gen. Bragg, ex-Congress man Bynum and all the leaders are considered strong supporters of the movement.

The largest visiting delegations, out side of Indiana, came from Kentucky, Ohio and Illinois. The Kentucky dele gation favor Charles Mintz for Presi dent. The Illinois and Ohio dele gations in the event he is not nominated they want ex-Gov. Buckner for Vice-Pres ident. The Illinois and Ohio dele gations also asked the convention at Louisville, but the latter was not in a guarantee fund of $10,000 for all ex penses, and the guarantee in this case was made to a body of very substan tial men, who were regarded by all as indicating his sympathy with the movement. Every mention of the Presi dent's name was loudly cheered. His portrait was the center of interest in the assembly-room. Ex-Congressman Outh
waite, who made the motion for a con vention to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President, holds a prominent appointment under President Cleveland. Gen. Bragg, ex-Congress man Bynum and all the leaders are considered strong supporters of the movement.

THE MEETING.
The Provisional National Committee of the gold-standard Democrats met at the Commercial Club at 3 o'clock. By num called the meeting to order. He announced that Gen. Bragg and Sen ator Palmer were delegates by acclama tion. The meeting was open to visiting De mocrats, as well as to members of the committee, and the assembly-room was packed. The temporary organization was continued until the evening ses sion. In the absence of Robinson of Il linois, Ewing of Illinois was made tem porary secretary.

A call of States showed thirty-five States represented by committee men present, as follows: Alabama, J. M.
Faulkner, Montgomery; California, E.
B. Pond, San Francisco; Connecticut,
J. A. Sperry, Florida, J. L. Gaskins,

Gordon, Berry; Virginia, Joseph Bryan, Richmond; Washington, Ira Krut, North Tacoma. Those reporting com mittee men selected and who were not present were Louis Ehrlich, Colorado; Edward S. Wilson, Mississippi, and Charles C. Conrad, Montana.

The secret reading of the resolutions adopted at the conference held in Chi cago, July 23, by ten Middle Western men and how every dollar is ex pended. Hanna says the question of Maj. Mc Kinley taking an active part in the campaign has not yet been discussed.

His belief is that McKinley will pursue his present course. He will not, Hanna says, go on the stump against Bryan.

DIED IN A HOSPITAL.
MRS. EVA B. RAYMOND SUCCEEDS
TO AN OPERATION.

(BY THE TIMES SPECIAL WIRE)
CLEVELAND, Aug. 7.—(Special Dispatch.) With his identity concealed by a wig and false whiskers, Walter Chamberlain, a business man, today at tempted to rob the Southern Savings and Trust Bank, and was mortally shot by A. S. Hubbard, cashier of the insti tution.

Chamberlain entered the bank at 12 o'clock, when the cashier was alone.
Chamberlain, carrying a bottle of oil of vitriol in his hand, forced his way into the treasurer's office, and handed that official a letter demanding that $5000 at once be handed to him, threat ening to dash the vitriol in the cashier's face if the demand was refused.

Feeling that the man was desperate, Cashier Hubbard tried to gain time, but his purpose was divined by the rob ber, who hissed: "Quick, money!"

"You can't get it, said the cashier, and dodged, for as he spoke the robber threw the bottle of vitriol at his head.
The duck saved his face, and the vitriol fell on his neck and shoulders, making ugly burns. While Hubbard was bend ing over he got a pistol from his desk.
As he straightened up he placed the weapon against the robber's abdomen and fired. As the robber was falling he drew a pistol and tried to shoot, but became unconscious, with his finger pressing the trigger. Chamberlain is unconscious and will soon die. His friends and financial troubles caused him to attempt to loot the bank.

THE ARIZONA BANK ROBBERS.
Another Possé to Be Started Out from Bisbee.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)
NOGALES (Ariz.), Aug. 7.—Frank M.
King returned this afternoon from a chase of the robbers who attempted to rob the International Bank yester day, and left the posse this morning.
Thirty-five miles from Nogales, still on a hot trail. The posse is now com posed of S. F. Webb, Collector of Customs; C. J. Mehan, Chinese Inspector;
George Carson, Sheriff; Capt. C. E.
Kelton, H. W. Brady, Albert P. Mehan and six Mexican gen darmes. King re turned to write to Bisbee to send a posse to Bull Springs on the San Pe dro River, where the robbers are head ing and where they have lots of friends.

Sheriff Leatherwood arrived today from Tucson with Deputy Boyle and will leave with Deputies Broderick and Doyle, Mounted Inspectors Webb and Kelton, the next train for Bisbee.
They will take horses there to meet the robbers. Yesterday, as the robbers passed Mehan's ranch, two miles from the corral and tried to catch two other horses which the robbers were obliged to leave at a ranch on Santa Cruz River. They stole a horse from the corral and tried to catch two other horses in the field. At one time the posse came in sight of the robbers about one half mile away on a little mesa.

King and Carson, who were armed with long-range rifles, dismounted to shoot, but by the advice of their com rades did not shoot, as, after consulta tion, it was decided that they would put the robbers on their guard, and the posse thought they could get nearer.
That was the next train for Bisbee.
The posse was at one time only fifteen minutes behind the robbers and passed within a few yards of where they had camped, but it was so dark that the posse could see nothing. The trail was again taken this morning.

Sheriff Leatherwood today wired Sheriff Fly of Cochise county to come from the other side to intercept the bandits. Further particulars will probably be received tomorrow.

Executed for His Crime.
OMAHA, Aug. 7.—Claude Hoover was hanged today. He expressed repen tance and met death with composure.
Last fall Hoover shot and killed Con cunian Sam Dubos, his brother-in-law.
The shooting was the result of a fancied wrong.

Brakebeam Tourists Killed.
MARENGO (Iowa), Aug. 7.—A freight train ran off the railway track near here this morning on the Des Moines Railroad. Four tramps stealing a ride were killed.

Safe into Port.
HAYRE, Aug. 7.—The rowboat Fox, from New York on June 5 with the two sailors, Frank Samuelson and George Harbo, on board, which was sighted off the Scilly Islands on August 1, arrived here today.

Discount on American Money.
MONTREAL, Aug. 7.—The St. Hyacin thine Chamber of Commerce has passed a resolution expressing approval of the action of the banks in that district in charging a discount of 10 per cent. on all American money. It also issued a warning to the merchants, farmers and public generally not to accept Ameri can money upon any consideration.

It Didn't Open.
LANSING (Mich.), Aug. 7.—Ingham County Savings Bank did not open for business this morning. The assets are $285,000, mostly in notes and mortgages; deposits $144,000. Cashier May stated that the bank would pay depositors in full. The closing was caused by the continued withdrawal of deposits, and the inability to make quick collections.

Lothaire is White-washed.
BRUSSELS, Aug. 7.—Maj. Lothaire, who has been on trial here on the ap peal of a British government, and charged with illegally executing Stokes, the English trader, by hanging him in the Congo Free State for selling arms and ammunition to the natives, has been acquitted.

The Times

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

Los Angeles contributed another unfortunate victim to the Highland institution yesterday. Morphine, cigarettes and whiskey had unseated a once bright mind.

To accommodate the citizens of San Diego and the large number of visitors now there, a special train, chartered exclusively for the purpose, will carry the Sunday Times to that city in time for breakfast. People want The Times and they are going to have what they want, as long as there are special trains and special steamboats to be had.

The registration in this county is not making as good a showing as desired, although it is quite probable that a great many names have not yet been reported from remote districts. The total number of names reported to County Clerk Newlin up to last night was 36,548. Of these voters, 21,728 registered in this city; this makes a total registration in the county of 14,820. The country registration should at least equal this city in numbers.

It may soon be desirable for Southern Californians to learn the Japanese language if the proposed steamship line makes its terminus at San Diego, which all people in these parts hope it will do. The struggles of the natives to pronounce the names of the representatives of the company have been carried on most manfully for several days past. But just bring the steamship line to Southern California and it will not be many moons before our merchants will, we dare say, fit themselves to warble even love songs in the purest Japanese tongue, if necessary. Anyway they will get a good commercial knowledge of the language quickly. We are a progressive people.

Concerning the cooperation of Los Angeles in helping secure the Japanese steamship line for San Diego a paper as that place says: "Whatever these Los Angeles gentlemen may do to assist this place to obtain this commercial prize, will be fully appreciated. The mere fact that they have come here on a mission of the kind should mark the beginning of an era of hearty cooperation between the two cities in the interest of Southern California. Should the opportunity ever occur San Diego will gladly reciprocate the friendly action of the Los Angeles delegation." The people of San Diego may always count on Los Angeles to assist in promoting what pertains to the welfare of Southern California.

Reports are again rife upon the streets yesterday to the effect that a decision has been reached in the county government act, affecting the terms of county officials throughout the State. Deputy District Attorney Holton had just arrived from San Francisco and was said to be in possession of "inside" information. Mr. Holton was seen last night and declared he was unable to secure any information whatever. He is of the opinion that the four-year term is safe. Commenting upon Judge York's opinion of Wednesday, he expressed the opinion that the Supreme Court would uphold the decision. It takes a contrary view to that expressed by Judge Shaw and Judge Van Dyke in their decisions and attorneys are on tiptoe for the Supreme Court's judgment upon the important legal questions involved in the prolix act.

Honey ants have a peculiar custom. They form subterranean chambers for a home. A number of the tribe never leave this home. Their vocation in life is remarkable. They keep house. The working ants go abroad and seek honey. Returning home they feed this honey to the housekeeping ants and stuff them full of the saccharine matter. The housekeepers are the honey jars of the establishment, as it were. As the season advances these unique honey repositories become so full of honey that their stomachs are finally distended to the size of a small cherry. These honey-fattened ants get into a state of inebriation, desuetude. They simply cling to the walls of their home in a sort of comatose condition. With the honey season ends the working ants want food. So they gently squeeze the stomachs of the housekeepers causing them to disgorge honey from time to time, and on these disgorgements the workers live until the next honey season. It is hard to beat an ant on the question of economics.

ANOTHER TIMES FLYER.

Special Train to Carry The Times to San Diego.

Sunday morning a special train, chartered for the exclusive use of this paper, will carry The Times to San Diego. It is the intention to deliver the Great Sunday Paper in that city at 8:30 a.m.

Towns along the surf line of the Southern California road will all be served by bundles of Sunday Times, thrown off at their respective stations at a time of day somewhat earlier than usual.

San Diego will be full of Los Angeles people on Sunday and they can have their favorite daily paper at a good time of day.

The Times flyer will leave Los Angeles at 4:30 a.m. and reach San Diego at 8:30. It will carry nothing but Sunday Times, a messenger and the crew.

SANTA FE CHANGES.

GENERAL FREIGHT AGENT GAY WILL GO TO TOPEKA.

Ed Chambers Will Be General Freight Agent of the Southern California Lines—Big Excursion to San Diego—Excursions Everywhere.

Though no official announcement is yet made, it is understood that F. C. Gay, general freight agent of the Southern California lines of the Santa Fe, will be in the city in a few days, promoted to a similar position on the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe, with headquarters in Topeka. This is construed as a recognition of Mr. Gay's ability, for in the new position he will be in charge of the freight traffic of a great system. A large number of friends in Los Angeles and all over Southern California will regret the departure of Mr. Gay from their midst. Ed Chambers, at present assistant general freight agent here, will be made general freight agent to fill the vacancy. Mr. Chambers needs no introduction to Los Angeles, for everybody knows him. Mr. Gay expects to go east with the party of Japanese steamship magnates, and will attend the conference of the foreigners with the officials of the Santa Fe in Chicago.

SCRAP HEAP.

H. C. Bush, assistant passenger and freight agent of the Atlantic and Pacific, passed through the city yesterday en route for San Francisco. Mr. Bush was one of the party that went to San Diego with the Japanese steamship magnates. The Santa Fe excursion to San Diego yesterday carried over 1000 people, the morning train being run in two sections. It is expected that another big crowd will go today. The Southern Pacific Company will run an excursion to Santa Barbara on August 21 and 22. The third regiment of the Uniformed Bank Knights of Pythias will have an encampment at Santa Monica from August 19 to August 26. On August 22 there will be a grand gathering of the Knights and their friends. Company F, Seventh Infantry, N. G. C., Capt. F. C. Reynolds, is contemplating an encampment at Santa Barbara. The plan is to leave Los Angeles on August 22.

WOEFUL WANTS.

Increasing Demands Upon the Associated Charities—Funds Needed. The managers of the Associated Charities are struggling heroically to meet the many demands made upon them by the needy, but there is much uneasiness felt by those in charge of the institution as to whether it will be possible to continue to supply the demands on the one side, if the assistance of the other is not increased. Mrs. Bath says that there have never before been so many calls for charity; that there is a great deal of sickness, and that many people who have heretofore been able to support themselves are in dire need, and are forced to apply for aid. Every day sees more need, and as Mrs. Bath says, "We have not yet gotten to the bottom, and the next six months will be harder yet."

The Associated Charities is entirely dependent upon monthly subscriptions, and if these fail, the work cannot be carried on. Following is a list of the subscribers, some of whom are for six months and others for a year; those whose subscriptions have already run out are cordially invited to renew the same without personal solicitation: H. on Wednesday afternoon went to the head of the arroyo ditch, on Old San Gabriel River, for a bath. One boy had taken off his shoes, when a voice rang out some thirty or forty yards above them, "Go away from there," at the same time firing a shotgun at them. Three of the boys were wounded by the discharge. The boys came back and reported to Constable Brookshire, who immediately went to the scene and found the empty shell, as well as a lot of beer bottles. The boys report that there were two men and two women from Los Angeles. Warrants are out for their arrest.

The annual Holiness camp-meeting begins tonight. Already there are some two hundred tents on the ground, and it is expected that by Sunday there will be three hundred more. Every available spot on the five-acre willow grove will be utilized by campers. Five busses will make trips to and from the grounds, every fifteen minutes; they meet every train going and coming. The meeting invariably continues over four Sundays.

THE TIDE IS RISING.

Notable Meeting of the Young Men's Republican League.

Stirring Speeches Made Before an Enthusiastic Audience.

Fast-growing Sentiment for McKinley—Speakers Define the Issues of the Campaign—Address by a Former Schoolmate of Bryan's.

A rousing meeting of the Young Men's Republican League was held last evening at the new quarters in the Stowell Block. The hall was full to the doors, and the enthusiasm of the audience found vent again and again in hearty applause and finally in cheers and patriotic songs. No more satisfactory evidence of the steadily rising tide, which is to sweep McKinley to success in November could be asked than was afforded at this meeting. Every one present felt the contagious thrill of enthusiasm which pervaded the gathering, and the telling arguments of the eloquent speakers found ready and appreciative attention.

Vice-President Luther G. Brown presided and introduced M. E. Allen as the first speaker. Mr. Allen said that the two vital issues before the people are sound money and protection. The Republican party commenced the campaign with the idea that the Democrats, having made free trade the issue four years ago, would make it the great question this year also. Accordingly the Republicans, desiring to meet squarely what they supposed would be the issue, nominated as its standard-bearer the man who of all others stands for protection. But the Democrats were inconsistent. They changed their war cry when they met in convention, and disorganization appeared in their ranks. They seemed ashamed of their record and of the executive they had chosen. They drifted into a Populistic combination and espoused the cause of free silver. They nominated a man for President who was known only because he had made a 16-to-1 speech—typically 16 to 1, for it was 16 parts wind to 1 part logic.

"But though the issue has been changed the Republican party is ready to meet the Democrats on any ground. The Republicans believe in sound money. We believe in the use of silver as far as the American people want it used as a part of the national currency. It should be coined so long and only so long as the government can maintain it on a parity with gold. We believe further that the coin which says 'In God we trust' should be able to say also, 'I know that my Redeemer liveth'."

The free silver policy would compel this country to maintain the value of all the silver in the world. This the speaker declared an impossible task. He reviewed the history of silver coinage in this and in other countries, showing the impossibility of keeping it in a fixed ratio with gold. France had to change the ratio twenty times in 100 years. The talk of the "crime of 1873" is preposterous, for the question had long been before Congress. The discussions filled 133 columns of the Congressional Record. When the measure passed there were only thirteen votes against it in the House, and the Senate voted unanimously for it. The "crime of 1873" was not the thought of until the great decline of silver had taken place because of overproduction.

The world's production in 1894 reached the enormous total of $24,000,000. Mr. Allen was thoroughly fortified with figures and statistics and he received the closest attention as he demonstrated the folly of unlimited free coinage. He was followed by George P. Adams, who was, in his boyhood, a classmate of Bryan's. He was humorously introduced by the chairman, as "a gentleman who has lived through a calamity which I trust the people of the United States will never have to endure—he has been acquainted with Billy Bryan."

Mr. Adams opened his remarks by a brief mention of the McKinley Club organized at University Thursday evening with a membership of ninety-eight. He proceeded to review the nominations made by the two parties this year. He detailed wittily the manner in which he imagined Bryan laid his plans to stampede the Democratic convention and described his success. Passing back to his boyhood days he said that as a student "Billy" was fair, though not unusual. But when it came to ineffectual rhetoric he was what his classmates called "a hell of a spouter." "He had no particular ideas of his own, but if you gave him an idea he would fix it up and paralyze you with it." That his cross-of-gold rhetoric was borrowed is known to all. With keen sarcasm the speaker ridiculed the would-be President who, two months ago, was in total obscurity and now is known through the land only as "Billy, the kid of the Platte."

Turning to the Republican nominee, Mr. Adams graphically described the statesman who was chosen at St. Louis, the man who stood for honest money, the same old payment of debts and protection for the people and the industries of the land.

Mr. Adams' speech was replete with clever hits and forcible points that provoked constant laughter and applause. Frank Dominguez expressed his satisfaction at seeing so large a gathering and one composed of men who would support the candidate nominated by the only sane convention of the year. He considered that the issue of immigration was of even more vital importance than either the currency or the tariff. Supply and demand fix the value of labor. The tide of immigration is running high and it is a matter of time before it will reach the point of no return. Today three million men are demanding work. If this is remedied we shall have no more of free silver. The Populists would disappear. If immigration is restricted prosperity will follow.

The next speaker was Walter Haas, who reviewed the broken pledges of the Democratic party. Twelve years ago that party proclaimed that it had found a Moses, and the people were persuaded to follow him. He led them to a land of Canaan. Four years ago they were again cajoled into the same great error, and the results were such that the Democrats have been obliged to find another leader. Therefore they announce a new Moses.

The free-silver idea is dishonest. It is unreasonable. The only theory to explain the madness of many people on this subject is that they have, during the past four years, been brought to the verge of ruin and, looking over the precipice, they have lost their heads. They have been seized with an irresistible impulse to leap into the Gulf.

The chairman then called upon Judge H. C. Gooding, formerly of Indiana, afterward Chief Justice of Arizona and for a year past a resident of Los Angeles. Judge Gooding declared in ringing tones that the issue in this campaign is broader than the mere question of currency or tariff. It is whether the people of the United States will continue in office the impetuous Democratic party, which has brought the country to such desperate straits, or whether they will restore to power the grand old Republican party. These are not the days of '61, when people were considering not questions of comfort, but the question of life. In those days McKinley showed his patriotism. The fact that he was in the ranks, that he carried a musket, that he won his promotion step by step, will endear him to every veteran in the land. The Democrats want to talk only of silver, just as in '61, they sought to evade the real issues. They say that this country can undertake free coinage alone because it is the greatest and the most powerful nation of the world. It was the Republican party that made it great. They have placed in the Presidential chair Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur and Harrison, and now they will add to that brilliant list of great men the name of William McKinley.

A burst of applause followed Judge Gooding's eloquent address, and three ringing cheers were given for him. The meeting adjourned, but many crowded about the platform to add their names to the membership roll, while inspiring strains of "Marching Through Georgia" afforded an expression for the enthusiasm which was felt by all.

IN FULL FORCE.

The McKinley Club of the Golden West.

The McKinley Club of the Golden West met yesterday evening at No. 225 1/2 South Spring street.

J. Y. Bernard introduced Gen. H. A. Pierce as the "old war-horse" and Gen. Pierce spoke in his usual strain, which was applauded throughout. He said that the Democrats are now singing "Free Silver" in the same tune that they sang in 1892, when they sang free trade. It is the same old mule, the same old fool that they had in 1892. He said, further, "that labor is the sinew of this country. The Republican party had, while in power, kept the fires blazing in the furnaces, and the spindles in factories turning and this land was filled with contented and well-paid laborers." The speech was an eloquent one.

G. Woodson Wickliffe was next introduced and held the audience for some time, giving good sound logic in every sentence. He spoke of the condition of affairs in the South, upon which he dwelt at some length. He referred to McKinley's action on the Force Bill and the enforcement of the law at Washington Court House, O., when the mob undertook to lynch a colored man there. His remarks were forcibly put and well received.

It was an enthusiastic meeting, and well attended. A number of names were added to the roll.

THOMAS CAME BACK.

Prindeville Thought the People Had Forgotten Him.

Thomas Prindeville, who was one of the strikers on the Atlantic and Pacific road and was arrested in July, 1894 for interfering with the United States mail trains at Needles, is again in trouble.

After his arrest he was released on his recognizance. Later he was tried and sentenced by Judge Ross to ten months' imprisonment in San Bernardino Jail.

Prindeville did not go to jail, but took advantage of his "recognizance" to skip the country. It appears that he went to the State of Washington and remained until recently. He returned to San Bernardino and was arrested there Thursday of this week by a Deputy United States Marshal and placed behind the bars of the county jail.

Call to Ninth Ward Republicans.

The McKinley Club of the Ninth Ward, which includes all of Boyle Heights, will meet in the A.O.U.W. Hall this evening to perfect its organization. An executive committee is to be appointed by President Woods and other matters pertaining to the club's welfare are to be given attention.

Speeches are to be made by W. J. Vail, J. A. Stumm and C. K. Holloway. A rousing meeting is anticipated and all voters of the ward have been given a cordial invitation to be present.

First-voters Republican Club. A number of young Republicans met on Thursday evening at the McKinley Club rooms for the purpose of organizing a First Voters' Republican Club. After some discussion as to ways and means, canvassers were appointed, and an adjournment was had until next Wednesday evening. The place of meeting will be announced early next week.

MONROVIA. (Regular Correspondence.) W. H. Evans has been appointed notary public, receiving his commission, seal and blanks this week. A McKinley Club was organized last Friday night, with a preliminary enrollment of forty-three. Dr. M. H. Chamberlain was chosen president, E. H. Boden, vice-president, and C. F. Moore, secretary. This, with those signing the call and not present, makes a membership of fifty-six. Another meeting will be held tonight to hear reports of committees, and to receive other members. No Republicans of Monrovia heretofore straight have joined the silverites.

Monrovia, not to be caught short of water, is investigating, through the Water Committee of the Board of Trustees, the proposition of building extensive reservoirs for the purpose of storing the surplus of winter water. A site has been located on E. J. Baldwin's land north of town, on an elevation of about 600 feet above the Southern Pacific track, and Mr. Baldwin's agent has signified his willingness that the committee has reported from the engineer's figures that a reservoir with a capacity of 5,000,000 gallons can be constructed for $100,000, enough to run an irrigation head of twenty-five inches ten hours a day for over two months.

The assessment for city purposes for the ensuing year is as follows: General fund, 40 cents; interest and principal on bonds, 85 cents; streets, 10 cents; library, 5 cents; total, $1.40. This is the same as last year's rate.

Agent Holman of Asus has succeeded R. W. Hobart at the Santa Fe station, the latter transferred to a station near Oceanide.

In the town of Monrovia 300 names have been registered. Not 2 per cent. will be left out by Monday night.

C. G. Rogers, a prominent property owner, returned Monday from a six weeks' visit to Burlington, Iowa.

W. N. Monroe now has charge of the Visalia Water Company's interests at Visalia. He has been engaged there for nearly a month. His family removed to join him last week.

W. S. Crank, formerly a resident of this city, and who has been head clerk in the Redondo Hotel the past season, has made arrangements whereby he will be associated in the management of the Antlers Hotel here for the coming season. The people here predict a great success for him, as he is energetic, affable and full of experience in the hotel business.

An Excessive Tax Levy. ALBANY (N. Y.) Aug. 7.—The Quincy Mining Company of Michigan has filed a claim for $700 for an excessive tax levy which they claim was levied upon them by the State as a tax on a foreign corporation. They claim they do not do business in this State.

CAPTURE NEAR CHINO.
Antonio Ramos Arrested by Officer Talamantes.

Two men are locked up in the City Jail, one on a charge of highway robbery and the other on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The alleged robber is Francisco Bastro, and the other man Antonio Ramos. Bastro's alleged crime brought about the capture of Ramos near Chino on Thursday by Officer Talamantes of this city.

On the night of July 28 J. D. Todd, an ex-police officer was held up and robbed by two men on Macy street near Alameda.

Officer Talamantes saw Bastro last Monday with a pin, alleged to have been stolen from Todd, in the lapel of his coat, and arrested him. The officer learned that Bastro's pin was in Riverside county, near South Riverside. He went in search of him Wednesday and at Chino learned that Ramos, who was wanted here for cutting an Italian July 26, had fled from the town on hearing that the officer was there. Talamantes overtook him about four miles from Chino and placed him under arrest. He was then brought back here yesterday morning and arraigned before Justice Morrison yesterday afternoon. His examination set for the date for his examination.

A Depraved Wretch.
George Winter was arrested in the Sixth-street park at 10 o'clock last night by Officer Fay. The officer was approached by a man who said Winter had made an indecent proposal to him. ### ACCUSED OF MURDER

Dr. Shorb Arrested on Complaint of Dr. Steddum.

Was Arraigned Before Justice Morrison and Gave Bail.

Another Chapter of the East Side Tragedy—The Inquest on Reland's Body Develops the Fact that Suicide Was Premeditated.

Another chapter in the East Los Angeles tragedy was unfolded when Dr. Andrew S. Shorb was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Hawley and Auble on a charge of murdering Jennie Snyder, who died Wednesday evening from the effects of a criminal operation.

Acting on the verdict of the Coroner's jury, rendered Thursday night, Health Officer Steddum yesterday swore to a complaint before Justice Morrison charging Dr. Shorb with the murder. The language of the complaint is emphatic and reads that: "A. S. Shorb did willfully, unlawfully and feloniously with malice aforethought, kill and murder one Jennie Snyder, a human being."

Justice Morrison issued a warrant for the physician's arrest and a little later Dr. Shorb, who evidently anticipated such a procedure, appeared in Justice Morrison's courtroom and was served with the warrant by Detectives Hawley and Auble. Hon. Stephen M. White and his partner, Charles Morrison, were present in behalf of Dr. Shorb, and the physician had not overlooked the necessity of bondsman.

Dr. Shorb was arraigned and his preliminary examination was set for August 12. Bail was fixed at $15,000 and Messrs. J. S. Slauson, Capt. George H. B. Caswell and N. Van Nuy qualified as Dr. Shorb's bondsmen.

AT THE MORGUE.

Early yesterday morning a crowd of people stood in front of Faul's undertaking establishment at No. 419 Downey avenue and peered through the screen doors in hopes of catching a glimpse of the bodies of the victims of the terrible tragedy.

Coroner Campbell arrived about 9 o'clock and once began an inquest on the body of William J. Reland, who killed himself in the presence of the Coroner, Thursday afternoon. Starting his inquest at 9 o'clock, he next went to the morgue to see the body of the young man's act was premeditated.

Sgt. McKee of the East Los Angeles Station was the first witness called, and he testified to substantially the same story as given yesterday morning in these columns.

Witnesses and after he had retold the story of his interviews with the deceased, he offered in evidence the following letter, which had been found on the dead man's person:

"These few words will tell all. I must go where my loved one is. My disease has progressed to the doctors, so investigate. I suppose my father will want my remains. Lay me by the side of my loved one. My home address is No. 120 Ash street, Seattle, Wash. Telegraph at once."

The address of his mother, Carrie Reland, was written in one corner. The letter was written on a billhead of Faul's, and addressed to the undertaker.

Faul testified that about 12:30 o'clock Thursday noon the deceased had called at the undertaking parlors and asked for a piece of paper, saying he wanted to leave a message. He was granted his request, and after writing a few lines was seen to place the paper in an envelope, direct and seal it, and then place it in his pocket and walk out.

The letter was found in one of his pockets while the body was at the morgue.

Mrs. Mary Tiley, a daughter of William Mayes, in whose home Reland shot himself, testified that she had gone into Mrs. Snyder's room a few days before that woman's death, and Mrs. Snyder had told her that Dr. Shorb had performed an operation, and that he had an assistant who wore a star.

Reiland was in the room and was acting strangely.

Thursday morning, witness said, Reland had eaten breakfast at her home and had left. He returned later, with the Coroner, and said he wanted to lie down, and also wanted a cup of tea. Witness gave him some tea and he went into the parlor. She next heard a shot, and running into the parlor found Reland dead on the floor.

Mrs. Tiley testified that the couple were very reticent and made few acquaintances.

Mrs. T. A. Gunn of No. 130 South Water street testified that she was present when Mrs. Snyder died and that Dr. Shorb came in looking surly. Reland had told her that the doctor was angry because there was some one there.

Coroner Campbell made a statement to the jury of the circumstances of the young man's death, and Dr. Carson testified as to the course of the bullet which had ended the young man's life.

A verdict of suicide by shooting was rendered.

A telegram from the father of the dead man was received by the undertaker yesterday ordering him to embalm the body. Dr. Shorb also received a telegram from Dr. Emil Borles of Seattle, Wash., yesterday, which read as follows: "Important letter goes to you today bearing on your case."

Dr. J. de Barth Shorb, who is not related to Dr. A. S. Shorb, said to a Times reporter yesterday: "Eleven days ago, while at my house, I received a telephone message from my office about 8 o'clock in the morning, saying that a man wanted to see me on urgent business. When I reached the office I found there a young man, who said that he wanted me to go and see his wife. He said 'I know a friend of yours, a Mrs. Seeley of San Francisco, and she told me to come to you.'"

"I went in what was the matter with his wife, and he replied that she was pregnant. He said she was suffering no unusual pain and also said he did not want her to be confined, that he wanted her to be rid of it. I told him I was not an abortionist and would do nothing for him.

He then asked me if my name was not A. S. Shorb, and I told him no, he had made a mistake. He said Dr. Shorb had been described to him as a short man, with gray hair, and that I did not answer that description. He asked permission to use my telephone, which I granted, and then he wanted to know Dr. A. S. Shorb's number. I told him I did not know, and he referred to the telephone directory, took down the book and asked for Main 82. Presently I heard him say, 'Is Dr. Shorb in?' and then, 'Will you wait fifteen minutes, I want to see you.' With that he turned from the phone, begged my pardon, and said he had evidently made a mistake, and left the office. When I read of the East Los Angeles case, I thought it might be the same, and went to the morgue this morning, where I identified Reland as the young man who had called on me."

The death of the couple puts an end to a search which the police department was making for them. Some days ago he received a letter from a man in this city, which had been written by the woman's husband, asking for particulars of his band, asking for particulars of his band, as he wished to get his daughter, Jennie. The outraged husband failed to give a description of his wife or paramour, and the police could not locate them.

The Christian Endeavorers.
Rev. C. S. Mason, superintendent of the Pacific Gospel Mission, in Los Angeles, this writes The Times from Greenbush, N. Y., under date of July 30:

"It was refreshing to get a glimpse of the Los Angeles Times on my arrival here on a visit. It is the best arranged paper I know of, and it always hits the nail on the head. The tariff cannot be side-tracked, that's straight goods, and should be reiterated and reiterated. The Christian Endeavor Convention was a great success. Los Angeles was honored by having the exclusive use of the Bruen gospel wagon, Sabbath day of the convention. Rev. C. S.
